Another Appeal for Bellef for Forlyfive Thousand Victims of the Recent Overflow in Louisians, Ngw Orleans, May 26.—The follow-ing was yesterday telegraphed to the mayors of large cities: O By request of the relief committee and leading citizens, I again call on all American cities in behalf of forty-five thousand victims of the great flood for such aid as your prosperity may permit or your philauthropy prompt you to grant. Contributions in cash and privisions in thirty-five days have been less than one hundred and eighty thousand dollars. The demand for relief will con-tinue great and urgent for many weeks Daily rations have been distributed to about forty-five thousand—eight bundred furnished by the government. Painful anxiety as to results is general. Nothing but a large increase of the resources for relief can prevent the horrors of a famine, and great loss of life. We need a million dollars more. AMUSEMENTS.

The Masonic Picute. The Masonic picnic to be given at James's park the twenty-fourth of next mouth is already arresting public attention, and promess to be one of the most excellent out-door entertainments of the season. A novel feature of this picule will be Lou. Leubrie's baby-show, which of itself will attract a large attendance.

We again remind our readers of the grand concert to come off on the fifth of June, at which Mrs. Keating and Messrs. Perring, Winkler, Hogg. Schultze, Levy, Petersen, Wilkins, Tomlineon and Siebsck are to appear. It promises to be a very fine affair, the last od perhaps the best concert of the sea-

Enights of Inutsfait; Piente. The Knights of Innisfail have selected the second of June as the day for their anniversary celebration and picuic at James's park. The managers are ar-ranging a programme of athletic games for which prizes will be awarded. The Knights of Innisfail, who claim to be the oldest order of chivalry in existence, will make this anniversary celebration and picnic worthy of their noble organefforts and bestow a liberal patronage.

St. George Society Picnic. The St. George society yesterday gave its fourth annual pienic at James's park. The attendance in the middle of the day was silm, but in the afternoon late the crowd commenced gathering, and by dark tire grounds were filled with hundreds of visitors. In the afternoon dif-ferent games were indulged in, and the enjoyment was unbounded. The hurdlenace of the asses, as well as the Jerusalem pony race, caused every one to roar with laughter. In addition to the above amusements, the visitors were entertained with foot-racing and sack-racing, the climbing of the greasy pole, ducking for oranges, and a quoit match for a fine hat. The dancing was continued until a late hour last night, and even then the participants were loth to leave, as they

Mrs. Jarley's Wax-Works The renowned Mrs. Jarley has been heard from by telegraph. She will be here to-day, and will bring with her the last consignment of wax figures. Those nowhere and which we had the pleasure of seeing on the stage of the Theater last night, made a "big show," and if to be taken as a premise of those to come, we feel safe in asserting, will secure for the Jarley wax-works great colar, and cause them to be remembered as in some respects superior to any attempt ever made in the legitimate show line here. Some of the "figers" seemed to be instinct with life, and so beautiful as to almost rival "natur." We saw more than one for which we could ourselves cheerfully find a permanent pedestal, so lovely and real did they look, and so attractive. They represent all sorts of personages, some who existed and some who are but the coinage of the poet's fancy, but they are all works of art, cos-tumed accurately and painted to simu-late life likelf. The Theater will be thoroughly ventilated for the occasion, and a corps of "gentlemen ushers," as to be treated in the same manner as ex-they put in court circles, will attend to traordinary imports decreed by intenon those who may be so fortunate as to be numbered among the favored a heavy contribution estimated upon the amount of their business, besides a percentage charged as an extra war tax To-day the Societa di Unione e Fratel-ianza Baliana will give its fifth annual picnic at James's park. This morning the society will form in procession and march down Main street to the picnic grounds. The procession will be graced by the presence of Miss Cordano, repre-senting Italy, and Miss Podesta, repreactually pay that tax. It is now pro-posed to compromise again, and pay the government four or five times the senting America. In the afternoon the queens will deliver appropriate addresses. Our well-known tellow-sitizen, Major Winchester, will deliver the orr-tion, which will doubtless interest and manded of them, and again estimate what increase of percentage it is to the cost of producing articles—again estimate. Louis. delight all who hear it. Of the pleas-ure and attractions of the Italian picnic the and attractions of the tanking the to-day it is needless to speak at length. All former plenies by this society have been unusually delightful, and have been conducted in a manner satisfactory cost of producing articles—say sugar or tobacco, which are the principal exports, and then charge, as before, this percentage as a war tax contribution, Work on o the most critical. The most extento the most critical. The most exten-sive preparations have been made for to-day's entertaiment, which, in mag-nitude and character will far excel any former one. The committee will have a add it to every invoice account sale, etc., made in future with the United States, and the principal consumers of Cuba's exports will be forced to pay the great part, if not the greatest, of the extenses of the stigment to end the infloor on the dancing ring so that this feature will be all the more expenses of the attempt to end the inthis feature will be all the more relished by those who participate. The best music of the city has been engaged, and from the efforts of the enterprising gentlemen who constitute the different committees, we have assurance that this occasion will be one of the grandest ever afforded our citizens. Of course there will be a very large attendance. The line of march will be as follows: up Second street to Market, down Market In the regions frequented by the Montaguaps and Nasquapse Indians. One cairn in particular, the stones of which were so heavy as to defy the assaults of Indians or bears, he forced open with gunpowder, and found in it a gigantic skull, breastplate, and brass-bound shield. The breastplate, though much rusted, bore signs of an inscription, or legend, falling to decipher which, he sent it to Copenhagen to see if it could be made out by the American archaeolo.

The old directors of the United railway company of New Jersey were re-election and the company of New Jersey were re-election a to Main, down Main to Beale, out Beale to James's park. The members of the society are requested to meet at their hall, 260 Second street, east side Court equare, at half past eight o'clock this morning promptly.

M. Chaix d'Este-Ange writes to Paris M. Chark d'Este-Ange whese to I also from Naples that among the recent tress-tures discovered at Pompell is a very per-fect and beautiful copy of the portrait of Alexander, by Pyrgeteles. It is a group in bas-relief, representing the conqueror at the tomb of Jupiter Ammon and conscious of his own semi-divinity. The at-titude of the figure is very sublime.

are no such consumers of bacon and south of Memphis. If the road to Kansas City were bull, there would be no need for the production in the south of grain or bacon in conjunction with cotton. Food could be grown for us more cheaply than we could make it, with present systems of labor, for ourselves. MEMPHIS AND ST. LOUIS

From Memphis to Minturn, on the Cairo and Fulton road, shown by a dotted line, the route of the first ainety miles of the Kansas City road is now lo-cated. Constituting part of an almost air-line road to St. Louis, it becomes part of the road from St. Louis to Fulton, and will be built by the owners of that road. From Kansas City, toward Memphis, perhaps eighty miles of the road is finished.

MEMPRIS AND PADUCAR. From Paducah to Memphis the road will be finished during the coming fall and winter. General McComb, Norton and other associates have leased the roads from Paducah to Louisville, and thegee to Cincinnsti, and an enormous travel and trade will soon pass through Memphis, or be distributed from this point, coming into the south over solidated lines.

BEYOND THE ORIO. This Paducah road is to connect through Memphis, by means of trackways between Front row and the river, with the Memphis and New Orleans the Memphis and New Orleans road, also owned by General McComb. If the unrestricted cession of the right of way through the city be made, the great workshops of McComb's roads in the south must be located here, where labor, fuel, materials and cheap freight charges by water make the location of workshops employing three thousand men eminently desirable. By this Paducah road, when the Ohlo is bridged, as it must soon be, at Paducah, we have an almost direct road to St. Louis, Chicago and Indianapolis. Aside from lead, iton and coal-fields in Keniucly, thus made accessible, it makes Memphis the gateway for States and cities north of the Ohlo seeking access to Arkansas and Texas. Mempins and Louisville.—Of the Louisville and Memphis road, constituting part of the magnificent system which has agrandized Louisville, it is needless to speak. Unhappily for Memphis, there is no competing line swring Memphis excitisately to force this road to adopt the same schedule of freight-charges toward as from the city.
